U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Industry Day and Open House

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania – The Pittsburgh District of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is hosting an Industry Day and Open House on Tuesday, December 13, 2005 at their District Office on the 22nd floor of the William S. Moorhead Federal Building. The Industry Day and Open House are being held in conjunction with the Pittsburgh Post of The Society of American Military Engineers' (SAME) December Luncheon Meeting.

The events will begin with the SAME Luncheon, featuring an Italian buffet, at 11:30 a.m. The luncheon presentation includes information on BRAC 2005 and the BRAC process as well as the Water Resources Development Act and other current Congressional appropriations. Following the SAME Luncheon, firms will be invited to sign-up on a first-come, first-served basis to provide a three-to five-minute presentation of their capabilities to the Corps of Engineers and others in attendance. At 1:00 p.m. the Corps will provide a brief overview of the Pittsburgh District and its Fiscal Year 2006 program followed by introductions to key team members and a tour of the Pittsburgh District Office. Firms will then have the opportunity to introduce their key staff and present a brief overview of their capabilities.

AGENDA

- 11:30 a.m. SAME Luncheon (Cost: $15 for Italian Buffet) and Presentation
