

Recreational Figure Skating FAQ

---

Berlin Lake

Berlin Lake can be a good lake for ice skating because of its many access points.

---

Conemaugh River Lake

A good place to access Conemaugh River Lake for ice skating is the Blairsville Recreation Area which is south of Blairsville off of Route 217.

---

Crooked Creek Lake

Crooked Creek Lake has two ponds open for public ice skating. The ponds are located 100 yards on either side of the Resource Manager's office.

---

East Branch Clarion River Lake

Ice skaters can access the lake from the East Branch Launch Area or the Instantter Launch Area. There are plenty of parking spaces at either of the boat launch ramp areas.

---

Loyalhanna Lake

There are many remote access points for ice skaters at Loyalhanna Lake. However, the most readily accessible points are at the developed recreation areas at the Dam Site & Bush Recreation Areas.

---

Mahoning Creek Lake

Mahoning Creek Lake is surrounded by steep hills that hinder access for ice skaters. Water levels at this lake are constantly fluctuating and ice skating is not recommended here.

---

M. J. Kirwan Dam & Reservoir

There are numerous access points at this lake for ice skaters. Almost all of the access points are operated by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. Try getting to the lake at one of the picnic areas, or the marina at the southeast side of the lake.

---

Mosquito Creek Lake

Mosquito Creek Lake has numerous access points for ice skaters. Some of these access points are operated by agencies other than the Corps of Engineers. Try getting to the lake at either the Lakeview or Damsite Recreation Areas where you'll find plenty of parking spaces.

---

Stonewall Jackson Lake

There are a few places for ice skaters to access this lake. Try getting to it at Jacksonville, Vandalia, Georgetown, or Glady Fork Access Areas.

---

Tionesta Lake

Tionesta Lake is hard for ice skaters to access. Try getting to the lake from the Tionesta Boat Launch Area where you'll find plenty of parking spaces.

---

Tygart Lake

Almost all access points at Tygart Lake are administered by agencies other than the Corps of Engineers. Try getting to the lake at the marina off of Route 9|7 or at the Tygart Lake State Park picnic areas. All of these access points are on the east side of the lake and they should have plenty of parking spaces.

---

Woodcock Creek Lake

The best places for ice skaters to access Woodcock Creek Lake is from the launch ramp, picnic areas, or swim beach at Colonel Crawford Park on the south side of the lake. Colonel Crawford Park is administered by Crawford County.